Dreaming the future

Harry Smith had a strange dream last Thursday. It was Saturday and he was going to the cinema with his mother. Mrs Smith was wearing her new blue coat. While they were walking along the pavement, Harry's friend Edward cycled past. Then they met somebody his mother knew. A few minutes later, they walked under a ladder. The man on the ladder was painting the newsagent's window. As they were walking past, the man suddenly dropped his tin and paint went all over Mrs Smith's coat. Then Harry woke up. When he told his mother about the dream, she laughed.

The next day, Harry and his mother decided to go to the cinema. Mrs Smith was wearing her blue coat. As they were walking along, they saw Edward on his bike and then they met Mrs Smith's friend. When Harry saw a man on a ladder, he pushed his mum into the newsagent's. He was sure the man was going to drop his tin of paint, because everything was the same as in his dream. But nothing happened! Mrs Smith laughed: 'You can't believe everything you dream.'
